BILL 300.

The Supreme Court Declares It Unconstitutional.

And the Assessments Made Under It Null and Void.

The City Thereby Runs a Risk of Losing About $2,000,000.

Cheerful Remarks for Persons Who Paid Their 1874 Taxes.

They Made Voluntary Contributions Which They Cannot Get Back.

Mr. Tuley Thinks the Legislature Can Validate the Assessments.

BILL 300.

IT IS DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Among the opinions of the Supreme Court filed at Ottawa Friday is the long-expended one in the case of Cooper vs. H. B. Miller, which involved the question of the power of this city to collect its real estate taxes under what is known as "Bill 300." This act, which was passed early in 1873, it is optional with the city authorities to collect the tax levy by the special machinery which it provided, or to let the assessment of the General Revenue Tax be collected by the City of Peoria, etc., "etc." The bill was tested in July, 1874, when the Collector applied to Judge Wallace, sitting in the County Court, for judgment against the property which was delinquent on city taxes for 1873. In about the half the cases merely formal objections were presented. Mr. Tuley objected that no values were inserted in the application for judgment, and that the tax was not levied on the general assessment of the General Revenue Tax, but in the case of the City of Peoria, etc., "etc." It was decided that the bill was unconstitutional, and that the law had no more authority to collect the tax than the collector had to collect the tax under the general assessment of the City of Peoria, etc., "etc."

NO DISCRETION.

The taxes of 1873 and 1874 were levied without any law.

An Interesting Chapter from the Record of a "Reformer."

Samuel J. Tilden has been regarded as the Napoleon of railway lawyers. That popular field of legal practice he has made his own, and through it he has added numerous "bills" of money" to his earthly treasures. It has been boldly and unashamedly charged that he has been over nice or peculiarly scrupulous in the manner in which he performed his duties to his railway clients. Like Jake Rehm, he seems to have put into successful operations all the quirks and quibbles of the most accomplished lawyer, and invariably made it a rule to get as much as possible, or as little as possible.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE: SUNDAY, JULY 2, 1876—SIXTEEN PAGES.

RETRENCHMENT.

Consultation of Several Council Committees.

All Are in Favor of Cutting Down the Expenses.

But Cannot Agree on the Department which Must Suffer.

Ald. Kirk Submits a Radical and Sweeping Proposition.

The Council Committee on Police, Fire, and Water, and Schools held a meeting yesterday in the Council Chamber to consult together on a general reduction in the running expenses of all branches of the City Government.

There were present Ald. McAuley, Kirk, Ballard, Koerber, Cleveland, Nissen, Gilbert, Ballou, Murphy, Sweeney, Stewart, and Sheridan. Ald. McAuley acted as Chairman, and opened the discussion by stating the object of the meeting.

Mr. Briggs favored a general reduction, and proposed to the Council that the amount of $100,000 be taken off the police budget.

Mr. Gilmore seconded the motion, and said that the amount of $100,000 would be a good sum to take off.

Mr. H. M. Tilden, who had been appointed to look after the interests of the bondholders who had reorganized the concern, Sammey was nothing lost to play the role of Trustee. He had done some good work, but was not able to effect a settlement with the bondholders.

Judge Bangs granted the injunction upon the bonds, and the bondholders were unable to effect a settlement with the bondholders.

Mr. Tilden's proposition was to make answer to the court, and to state that he had no money to pay the bondholders.

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

Judge Wallace will be the Democratic candidate for the Sheriffship. His sound health is assigned as the reason for his candidature.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Manasse, optician, TIDBURN Building, was at 8 a.m., 66 degrees; 10 a.m., 65; 12 m., 71; 1 p.m., 69; 3 p.m., 64. Barometer, 8 a.m., 28.85; 1 p.m., 28.37.

SCHOTTY.—By one of the ring: "And so they've had Joe to jail just for stealing a few flowers out of the park. Serves him right! Why didn't he steal the park? He's a public man and a Commissioner ought to do!"

The Lumbermen's Association had a meeting with closed doors at the Tremont House last evening, and transacted business which no one else's business, judging from their reluctance to have their transactions made known.

The two-headed girl was exhibiting in St. Louis for the first time, and the directors were present at the opening of the circus.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Henry Knoll, a little 2½-year-old son of J. W. Knoll, No. 271 North Wells street, while running across the street in front of his residence, fell under the wheels of one of Raeger's buses, and had his right leg broken above the knee by one of the horses stepping upon him.

The Woman's Temperance Union have appointed working-men, and stated it would hold temperance meetings over the city and suburbs. Three of these have been organized. Their Sunday temperance service will be omitted during July, however. It has been successfully conducted for six months.

A reception was given to Miss Marion Faxon from the evening in honor of her return from dancing school, by her cousin, Miss Ella A. Richardson, at the latter's residence, No. 530 Lincoln avenue. Miss Faxon is an accomplished belle. Her friends gave her excellent advantages. Dancing and a variety of amusements were the order of the evening, and a pleasant time was had.

There are few things more calculated to shake one's trust in the principles of Temperance than the fact that women, for whom Temperance has been preaching, his neighbors deal with his prophecies about the inevitable nomination of Hendricks, Bayard, or Lamont, come up to you and say, "I'm not going to be a Temperance woman. I'll have to tell my husband, I always told you my Uncle Samuel would scoop 'em. Don't you remember my saying to you last July, 'I'll be a Temperance woman'" etc., etc.

Shortly after noon yesterday, a man named H. B. Goodrich, residing at Hammonton Station, near Elgin, was caught between two street-cars going in opposite directions, at the curve of the crossing on Madison and State streets, and was severely injured. He was sent to the hospital in two cars. He had stepped off the way to allow one car to pass, when he was run down by the other. No bones were broken, but he received several internal injuries.

James Williams, carpenter, employed by the South Side Gas Company, while building a track on the roof of the coal sheds at the corner of Deering and Cogden streets, accidentally missed his footing at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and fell about 30 feet. He was taken to his residence, No. 740 Allport avenue, and was attended by Dr. Bidwell, who says he cannot survive. He is a widow, 35 years of age, and has a wife and one child.

Jack Schmidt, a 13-year-old boy residing with his parents at No. 245 Hurhurt street, was badly wounded in the face yesterday afternoon by the premises of a pistol. He is in a dangerous condition, and is said to be in a critical condition. His mother, Mrs. Schmidt, and his father, Mr. Schmidt, are both in the hospital.

The second division will be formed by the Polish Society, escorted by the Polish Guards, under command of Maj. A. B. Zaremba, and friends, on Adams and Paulina streets, Monday at half-past 2 o'clock.

The Church of the Reدهر will be closed from day till till the first Sunday in September, for repairs. The pastor will preach a discourse upon the importance of contracts, and the same in our national life.

John Connell, the Chief Marshal, and his appointment to the command of the Academy of Design for the summer reception Thursday evening is making satisfactory progress. Quite a number of pictures have been sent from all parts of the country during the week. The display will be exceedingly creditable, one considering that the Centennial exhibition has absorbed so much of the artistic wealth of the country.

A funeral dirge was given by Mr. Sherman, his mother, Mrs. R. M. East, in honor of the late General Quincy A. Gillmore, to his fellow employees and those under his charge.

THE GOODRICH TRANSPORTATION COMPANY has once more shown its enterprising spirit and its wish to cater to the public's desire for a more rapid and comfortable conveyance of persons and property. The steamer Chicago, Sheboygan, and Muskegon will make hourly trips to Evanston, and every evening, the first boat leaving the foot of Michigan avenue, 8 o'clock, and making a direct connection with the steamer Milwaukee, which will be a memorial of the late Presiding Bishop.

The line will be interspersed with a concert band for the convenience of those who patriotism at their heels, and at Evanston there will be an appropriate celebration. The Company will also make excursions to Muskegon, St. Joseph, and Michigan City, at short notice. THE LOAN MARKET.

A DECREASE IN TRANSACTIONS.

Dublin reigned supreme over this department of the trade past week. The figures tell but a little short of those in our last statement, but the actual loans are fewer. Renewals, trades, shifting of property, and securing pressing debts were the main features of the week's operations. The demand was nil. The quietude produces no change in the loan agent's mind as to the rates for money. The fact that the seven per cent men have no applicants is sufficient proof that there are no first-class securities to any large amount offering. The semi-annual statement below has some encouraging features.

The proportion of renewals to new business is 94% per cent, against 88 per cent.

THE GRAND JURY.

Its Report on the Food Furnished Jail Prisoners.

Sheriff Agnew Called On by the Court for an Explanation.

An Interesting Document Concerning the Insane Asylum.

The Grand Jury reassembled yesterday morning and put the finishing touches to its labors. It refused to hear any further complaints, and deferred its time principally to framing a "moral indictment," which is given below. It came into court about noon, and, beside the moral indictment, returned thirty-one others, all for petty offenses. The "moral indictment" it will be noticed, is particularly severe on the management of the Jail, and, in view of the language of the statutes, providing that the dieting of prisoners shall not be of pecuniary profit to the Sheriff, also reflects somewhat upon the conduct of the County Board in fixing the allowance for dieting at $5 per day, while the cost is demonstrated to not exceed 10 cents per day for each prisoner. The report is as follows, and is its own commentary:

she looks well in this city, her son is well, and Dr. O. T. Maxson, is pleased to say, came out yesterday evening to see him. The medical exercises conducted at the school were successful, and the prizes, and obtained that was the result. The Clark was also successful in the last says Waukegan can't furnish news. For the past two years a man and his wife have resided in the house.

Low, and Principal in the school included his labor in that cause to study for one of the professions, not to mention his pupils, appreciating his value and his personal disposition.

The public school of the Park and the branch school of Ridgefield closed last week, the examinations, written and oral, were completed and thorough, and the pupils generally stood in expecting credit upon themselves and instructors.

The closing exercises Friday afternoon were really an examination of the historical rehearsal of the school, no change being allowed for the occasion, and the results of regular school work for preparation, and no tax on the schoolars when they have so much other work to do, than thus the exercise show the real character of the school. No attempt at a school exhibition or popular entertainment.

The students went through the programme, without a word spoken by the teacher, showing a certain feature in the discipline of the school.

Particular attention was given to the singing of the school.

Mrs. McMurray, who has the departure of a valuable model and tool of education.

The girls of the Park's will sell eggs and refreshments in the store under the Social Club rooms Tuesday, during the day and evening.

The trip for June will appear to-morrow, with a report of Commencement week, and F. M. Jones' Easter, on State street.
